

The Gooden School

Hot Lunch Program

My name is Leslie Blythe Miller and I have been providing hot lunches for the students at The Gooden School since 2004. I am a parent of two Gooden alumnae: Zoe (who is a teacher's assistant at Gooden) and Grace. Since studying at La Varenne in Paris and graduating from the Culinary Business Academy, I have had many roles in the culinary world. I am a personal chef, caterer (Blythe's Bites), food blogger (blythesblog.com), and cooking class instructor (teaching both adult and children's cooking classes).

I prepare daily lunches in the school kitchen serving kindergarten through fifth grade at 11:45 a.m. and sixth through eighth grade at 12:30 p.m. at a cost of $6.50 per child. I am always open to parent suggestions for new menu ideas, but please keep in mind that the kitchen does not have a large oven, so I am a bit limited on the types of food I can prepare.

I feel lucky to have been given the opportunity to prepare wholesome meals for the students at The Gooden School. I have learned so much from them and enjoy the challenge of getting them interested in healthy food choices. I am always happy when I can convince a student to try something that they think they dislike, and they end up liking it!

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to call, email, or come find me in the kitchen.
